

REVIVAL PLANS AT THIRD STREET CHURCH ARE MADE

Former Popular Pastor Will Be the Evangelist at Revival Which Begins on Next Sunday Evening.

Extensive preparations are being made for the special revival services to begin at the Third Street M. E. church next Sunday and run for two weeks. The choir met last evening for organization and rehearsal of several new revival songs for the meeting. They will meet again Friday evening at which every singer in the church is expected to be present. The prayer service tomorrow evening should be attended by every member of the church and others who are interested in the religious welfare of the community.

Rev. E. R. Overly, of Newport, formerly popular pastor of Third Street church, and who has steadily advanced in the ministry until he is now the pastor of one of Kentucky Methodist's strongest churches, will be the evangelist. He will arrive Monday and preach his first time Monday evening. No more earnest preacher of the Gospel ever occupied the pulpit of this church than Rev. Overly. And wherever he has preached the same report goes out of his ministry. Then he is a most likable man, making scores and hundreds of friends wherever he is pastor. His services as pastor have been sought by many of the best churches of the state. Third street church is very fortunate in securing him for this special meeting and there should be no bar to a successful meeting. Although the Christmas holidays are approaching there is no one but that can give some time each day in the Lord's service. The membership of the church especially, is asked to so arrange their affairs that nothing may hinder the success of the meeting. The church extends a warm and friendly invitation to the public in general to attend.

PRISONER ASSAULTS JAILER IN TRYING TO ESCAPE

Jailer's Wife Strikes Unruly Prisoner With Lump of Coal as He Attacks Her Husband.

The Fleming Gazette says: Sunday morning about 8 o'clock Jailer Ollie Fizer had a rough and tumble fight with the only prisoner he had in jail, when the man boldly attempted to escape. The prisoner, named Robert Browning, was locked in a cell and when Jailer Fizer unlocked the cell door and entered to take him a fresh bucket of water the fellow leaped upon him exclaiming: "Now, d—n you, I guess I'll go out." Browning was on top of the jailer trying to wrench from his hand a billy, when Mrs. Fizer came to the rescue. "Hit him with a lump of coal," cried the jailer. Mrs. Fizer proceeded to do so, but not very hard. "Hit him hard." She did so and Mr. Fizer getting his black jack loose dealt the prisoner a blow on the head which quieted him. Officer Vanarsdell who happened to be passing the jail was called by Mrs. Fizer and the unruly prisoner was placed back into the cell and locked up. Cuts and bruises about his head and face and a thumb bitten by Mr. Fizer gave evidence of the combat, on Browning. While assisting her husband in the struggle Mrs. Fizer also had one finger bitten by the man, who would escape. Mr. Fizer was not hurt. "Browning comes from Robertson county and was brought here Friday by officers from Robertson who give him a bad reputation. When arrested he carried an ugly looking gun. He is wanted for disturbing religious worship at a church near Oakwood. It is alleged Browning was reproved by the preacher and that he proceeded to break up the meeting and took a shot at the pastor as he went out the door. His hearing has been set for December 7th in the county court."

JOHN W. NEWMAN HEADS KENTUCKY BURLEY ASSOCIATION

Officers and Directors of Burley Tobacco Growers' Association Chosen at Meeting Yesterday.

John W. Newman, of Versailles, the former State Commissioner of Agriculture, and since its organization in September the temporary head, was elected president of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association at a meeting of the directors Tuesday afternoon, C. M. Dean, of Carroll county, and W. H. Shanks, Lincoln county, were chosen vice presidents, and E. M. Mansfield, of Carroll county, secretary.

The directors were elected at a meeting of members of the association in the ballroom of the LaFayette Hotel Tuesday morning. When their names were presented by the nominating committee, not one of the 457 votes present were cast dissenting.

A. F. Shouse, of Fayette county, was one of the 17 directors chosen. The others are: Martin Madden, Gallatin county; F. A. Griffith, Switzerland county; Ind.; C. M. Dean, Carroll county; T. B. Hill, Montgomery county; A. L. Murray, Bracken county; V. S. Metcalf, Grant county; W. H. Shanks, Lincoln county; Truman Snedeger, Bell county; John E. Brown, Shelby county; Everett Marshall, Scott county; H. V. Thompson, Clark county; John W. Newman, Woodford county; O. C. Chapman, Clermont county; Ohio; W. J. Baxter, Jessamine county; T. H. Souley, Fleming county; Everett McClure, Dearborn county, Ind.

The officers elected Tuesday will serve until the first annual meeting the first Monday in March, 1921. Directors will meet four times a year: the first Monday in March, first Monday in June, first Monday in September, and first Monday in December. A special session may be called before March to take up details of organization and the taking of the by-mail tobacco census, plans for which were discussed at the membership meeting Tuesday.

The Burley Association was formed in September after a mass meeting in Lexington at which representative from practically every Burley county in Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio voted down a proposal to cut out the 1921 crop, and took steps to form a cooperative association for the protection of growers. It was incorporated in October and now has more than a thousand members in five states.

BLIND AND MOTHERLESS BOY TO BE CARED FOR.

Steps have been taken to properly care for and educate the seven-year-old blind boy whose mother died yesterday at Haywood Hospital. Big hearted citizens have contributed liberally to a fund to purchase the lad proper clothing and get him into the state school for the blind. This fund is in the hands of Mr. Harry C. Curran who will see that it is properly administered.

To succor the afflicted, minister to the orphan and care for the distressed are practical exhibitions of Christianity. The very corn and meat of the Master and so as agent for the little mites contributed by generous citizens for the help of the good and horribly burned woman and her blind 7-year-old child this report is made that these may know how their money was used. Aside from the small fund others gave of their time and influence so that no service was left undone for the relief of these sorely afflicted persons. All had to be done in a hurry so those who did not give, nor were approached should not feel slighted. You can help with the next case. Judge Purnell, Mrs. Stanley Reed and Miss Wallingford, Jas. B. Wood, Mayor Russell, Merz Bros., Brady, Boulden Co., R. T. Knox, Harry Barkley, Mrs. Hannah Curran, J. B. Russell, Ray Dora, J. B. Orr, Wm. Jones, Wm. Watkins, Glenn Gault, Ed. Duley, Zene Flaucher, C. P. Dieterich, Roy Cochran, Harry Robinson. The little fellow was fitted out with hat, suit, shoes, stockings, shirts and underwear and will be sent to Louisville to the blind asylum there to be taught and cared for so he may be a useful citizen.

MOVING PICTURES MAY BE INSTALLED IN SCHOOL

Maysville High School May Add Moving Picture Machine To Its Present Equipment.

The student body and faculty of the Maysville High School may add a moving picture machine and outfit to the present equipment of the local school. It became known last night when Superintendent W. J. Carlinger informed the Board of Education of a proposition which a large magazine publisher had made to the school.

Visual education is taking a great part in the present day system of education and many of the first class high schools of the country have already installed moving picture equipments. The National and State educational boards offer free to these schools equipped to use them, films of an educational nature.

The proposition offered the local school appears to be a good one. The students and faculty are offered one-half of the subscription price of a national magazine for the purpose of purchasing such an outfit. It is believed that the local student body and faculty can obtain one thousand subscriptions at one dollar each giving them $500 with which to purchase the equipment. This system would add the expenditure of one cent by the school board.

It appears that the school board will endorse the movement and the action of the students and the faculty will be announced later.

ALUMNI BASKET BALL STARS ORGAN- IZE STRONG TEAM

Former Graduates of M. H. S. Who Have Made Good on College Teams Will Furnish High Class Basketball During the Winter.

At the regular monthly meeting of the City Board of Education held last night a committee of former graduates appeared before the board and requested the use of the gymnasium of the High School for the purpose of playing basketball with strong basketball ball teams throughout this section.

The request of the young men was granted by the board with the understanding that the teams shall be strictly Alumni teams, permitting the use of members of the faculty and High School students and that they shall be under the direction of the Property committee of the board.

It is understood that this movement will give to Maysville the highest class sport the city will likely see during the year. The Alumni team will be composed of former students of M. H. S. who have made good on college teams and they will book only the strongest teams to be found in Kentucky and Ohio cities. Such men as Everett, who was captain of the Kentucky University team last year, and Parker, who has starred on the University team will be in the line-up.

This arrangement promises to bring to Maysville some strong Alumni, college and university teams and is calculated to create much interest in basketball throughout this section. A schedule will be made out as soon as possible.

MAYSVILLE GIRL TO APPEAR HERE IN MOVIES

Miss Alice Lee is Star in "The Invisible Divorce" To Be Presented at Washington Monday Eve.

Miss Alice Lee, daughter of Mr. Stanley Lee, Third street grocer, who has made for herself quite a reputation as a movie actress, will make her first appearance on the screen in her home town Monday evening when "The Invisible Divorce" is presented at the Washington theater.

Miss Lee was born and reared in Maysville and spent much of her life here where she has many friends. After going to California she developed into a very talented screen artist and it is expected that her first appearance on the screen here Monday will attract a large number of her friends and acquaintances.

Critics say that "The Invisible Divorce" is one of the greatest of recent feature releases and aside from the interest that will be created in the picture because of the starring of a Maysville girl, the picture will attract many because of its plot.

EDDINS CASE IS AGAIN POSTPONED BY AN AGREEMENT

Murder Case Will Not Be Called Next Week As Had Been Planned But Has Been Set For Trial on Monday, January 2.

The trial of Henry L. Eddins charged with the murder of Ben Schumaker, which was to have been called immediately following the opening of the December term of the Mason Circuit Court next week, has again been postponed by an agreement reached this morning by District Prosecutor B. S. Grannis and attorneys representing the prisoner.

It had previously been arranged to call the murder case the first week of court and get all criminal cases out of the way but because of the serious illness of Mrs. B. S. Grannis, who will undergo an operation at Lexington tomorrow, it is likely that the prosecutor will be unable to attend court regularly during the first of the term.

The agreement reached by the attorneys this morning, fixes the retrial for Monday, January 3rd. It is thought that this will give plenty of time for the long trial to be finished before the close of the December term. Several will cases which have been hanging fire for some time will likely be called during the first of the term.

NEW MISSISSIPPI RIVER

The large stacks are at least six feet in diameter and about them there are large red, white and blue stripes.
